Distant from myself.
Finding my wounds are as good as gone.
Buried alive.
I am conscious and breathing.
Buried alive.
This is all I have ever dreamed of.
It's fallen right before my feet.
I couldn't ask for more.
I swear my heart beats with hope.
My eyes are set on the goal, and I have no misconceptions.
I have awoken a giant within me.
I gave this my heart,
and here I am with my intentions at their best.

The eyes of all are watching me as I bury this misery
and I know I'm awake.
Pressing forward.
I have awoken a giant.
I'm in a different state of mind.
With my hands clenched at my sides.
I gave this my heart,
and here I am with my intentions at their best.
The eyes of all are watching me as I bury this misery
and I know I'm awake.
I gave this my heart.
