Shining sky you know you gotta leave town
Now the days when you gotta let it shine out
So many problems something's gonna break you down
Take a walk and let the rain wash the road again
Say a prayer jump in to the blue sky
Never know if you land to see another day
Give and take is what they always they say now
Give me back all my time that you wasted

You came to me
To be free
To be you
So now you should see
Whats right in front of you
Whats right in front of me

Take a bow cause you know you're gonna make it
Walk around the streets of all them paved with gold
Leave behind all the things you want to leave dead
Nothing changes nothing gained when all the chips are down
Now your day is when something is gonna breakdown
Far away is where to be when it's going down
All you see is what you were to me was
Don't be shy don't ever cry don't ever let me down

You are to me
What i dreamed
You to be
So now you should see
Whats right in front of you
Whats right in front of me

Take a bow cause you know you're gonna make it
Walk around the streets of all them paved with gold
Leave behind all the things you want to leave dead
Nothing changes nothing gained when all the chips are
down
Now your day is when something's gonna breakdown
Far away is where to be when it's going down
All you see is what you were to me was

Don't be shy don't ever cry don't ever let me down
