We are in transition
Chameleons to those around us
The narcissistic allies that you decide to call your friends
Are as lost as you, yeah
No one is true
No one is pure
No one is

You hide your best secrets in the dark
You are the reason I am myself

Take my hand when there is nothing that you can do
Understand that I've got nothing to prove to you
Time defined
When you can see through these eyes
Your unholy disguise of truth

Don't you sit and tell me now that we are all the same Don't you sit and tell me now that nothing here has changed
Fate is calling, our mind is changing like sapphire flames infused
My self examined, predetermined life is what I choose

You hide your best secrets in the dark
You are the reason I am myself

Take my hand when there is nothing that you can do
Understand that I've got nothing to prove to you
Time defined
When you can see through these eyes
Your unholy disguise of truth
