Lalalalalalalala (love meltdown) Lalalalalalalala

Verse1

At times i sit in my room with all these thoughts in my head trying to come back to life when the emotion is dead but now i feel it inside the tension from another fight baby you cant keep leaving everytime we argue fuss and fight if you jus stick around and work it out then things would be alright

Love meltdown

just because we argue and ae it doesnt mean the end of the show
and jus because i tell you to leave it doesnt mean i rt
you to go
love meltdown
hate you i cant stand you these are symptoms of love
a love meltdown down down
a love meltdown

Baby i jus want to give you the world but we cant if we end it my heart wouldnt recommend it things wouldnt be the same if we left out each others lives sometimes i wish that you could see my feelings thru my eyes please baby (dont go) i nee you (back home)

how could you leave my heart so cold time and time again i try to tell u that i love you need ya we're in a love meltdown

Baby i kno that all relationships go wrong, Im sorry but youre my favorite melody i'll sing you from my heart

Lalalalalalala (love meltdown) Lalalalalalala
