say a prayer for me
i need a new life
i'm not blind cuz i see the truth and the lies.

heed my words, listen to advice you don't need to run away and take your life no you can't live this way.

saw you go for miles and miles and miles and miles and miles destination nowhere, no means or how so you go for miles and miles soul searching, soul searching for how...

just take a look around at the faces that you meet cuz everybody's got their own pains like you and me never fall away.

whatever you do choose life the thoughts on your mind choose life wherever you go choose life choose life.

for how.
