Impatient and i cant wait any longer,longer i can feel it you love is taking over,over all my oxygen and my gravity is gone,gone when we kiss its in a galaxy unknown,known,known whenever im near you i can feel you and my mind tends to expore

i'd give you the sunlight and the blue skies but you deserve much more i'll give you the world and the moonlight forever you'll always be my starlight i'll take you above the weight of love will last forever and ever ever

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (starlight love)
oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (starlight love)

Lately the start dont shine as bright,no I'm trapped in a black hole only you can pull me out,no No more shooting stars no more rocket sparks oh no,no for that reason the milkyway melted and our love came falling down

tends to expore

i'll take you above the weight of love will last forever

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (starlight love)

No matter where we are no matter near or far we'll always be together we can travel to the start take a trip to mars we can run this world together

i'll give you the world and the moonlight
i'll take you above the weight of love will last forever

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (starlight love)
