I know your love is true it's not just sex for you It's the first time that I felt this way in a long time and it's something I could get used to

It's love, it's love, it's true when I'm making love to you It's not just teenage lust or trying something new, it's love, but we're too young to follow through

Her heart is made of gold these past two years I've grown so cold
At the thought of trying out a different lover Now I know, I could never love another

It's love, it's love, it's true
when I'm making love to you
It's not just teenage lust
or trying something new, it's love,
but we're too young to follow through

With all the plans we made travel all the world and drink our cares away what a happy day, if only i could say that she would be my lover, from now until forever

It's love, it's love, it's true
when I'm making love to you
It's not just teenage lust
or trying something new, it's love,
but we're too young to follow through
