I see the stars,
see how they're shining Vacant of color,
beautifully blinding
I see this girl,
she doesn't see me
I love the world,
it doesn't love me
Yet I still see the light,
even on the darkest of nights
Oh, how?
How?
Oh-oh-oh

I see the moon,
reflecting the sunlight
Vacant of color,
I beg her stop crying
I see this girl,
she doesn't see me
I love the world,
it doesn't love me
Yet I still see the light,
even on the darkest of nights.
Oh, how?
How?
Oh-oh-oh
