looking through the glass as wipers clean the windshield and i know for the first time rainy days cant be wiped away with your laugh with your smile im just that guy who's in denial punishment to interrogation i got this down to a science but im lacking straight answers someone as artistic as you you should be able to paint the picture for me the truth for anyone who asks even hollywood would buy this one from me this one from me your answers are the greatest question you held your heart up and you learned your lessons we'll keep on smiling it up and painting the town

while i'm sitting at home smiles upside down and i know you blame this on me

and painting the town

and painting the town

and painting the town
and i know you blame this on me you blame this on me
me
me

your answers are the greatest questions and you held your heart up and you learned your lessons
