i've been packin' my bags i'll be headin' down south by the time graduation rolls around where the weather is warmer and the people are fresh

i'll be ponderin' life, doin' my time on the road pedal to the metal in my 1999 ford and all my life in one place i've done my time but i've lost the race

i've been workin' my ass off trying to find the part of me my friends all miss
but honestly..
i'm kinda fed up with
all this advice,
but never a sign..
should i stay?
or should i go away?
all to find
the better half of me

i've got this spare change i'll be sendin' souvenirs to all my friends up north where the weather is cooler and the people are dull

i'll be ponderin' life,
doing my time on the road

but honestly..

all this advice,
but never a sign..
