Hey single mom, I can see
You cryin' by the crib down on your knees
No daddy around is a scary thing
I know you're feelin' lost but don't be a afraid
You'll find your way

Hey auto worker, I ain't blind
I see ya punchin' out for one last time
Weight of the world weighin' on your mind
Buddy, this ain't the end of the line today
You'll find your way

Past the pain of all your struggles
Through the rain of all your troubles
Over rocky mountains
Out of whippin' winds of change
Down those highways paved with doubt and darkness
Follow with all your heart and don't lose faith
You'll find your way

Hey married couple 'bout to hang it up
Sayin' what this is ain't what it was
I knew you'd be here when you fell in love
And I know sure as I live if you'll just stay
You'll find your way

Past the pain of all your struggles
Through the rain of all your troubles
Over rocky mountains
Out of whippin' winds of change
Down those highways paved with doubt and darkness
Follow with all your heart and don't lose faith
You'll find your way
You'll find your way

Hey sweet ol' timer pushin' eighty now
Who's never thought a lot about
Where you'll end up when you check out
I know by the words you're about to pray
You'll find your way
You'll find your way

Past the pain of all your struggles
Through the rain of all your troubles
Over rocky mountains
Out of whippin' winds of change
Down those highways paved with doubt and darkness
Follow with all your heart and don't lose faith
You'll find your way
You'll find your way
