We wear it on our face
We keep up with the pace
And don't slow down
Perfection without grace
Is such a lonely place to be found

We go round and round
And never really move at all

We are bruised and destined to lose
From doing this alone
Let it fall and cover us all
In grace that's not our own

See it in our eyes
We're running for the prize
Don't burn out without a hand to hold
We'll never really know what life's about

Let's live like we're alive
And take the pain in stride
We'll learn from our mistakes
And be glad we ever tried

Live like we're alive
Run with him into the night
