I tell you I hate all my verses
I told you I'd break all your curses
You say relax, all the good things will come to the ones who wait
I don't think I can feign patience
You want to be with me
I'll bring you...

(CHORUS)
Down to nothing
Down to hear me
Down to nothing
I have left you

Say all the lines that need saying
I'm not the one who needs fixing
You say come on, wait 'til sunrise and you'll have a brand new day

I don't think I can get through this Still want to be with me
I'll bring you...

(CHORUS)

Now all that's left is the leaving
Baby, don't think I regret you
I just need a different muse I'll say goodbye, cause I know that you do not have the strength
I know that I will get through this

(CHORUS)
