Another savior for another time
Where will this one lead
Who can tell if she is right or wrong
When she speaks to me
Fills me with a hope I haven't known in so long
Makes me feel so free
She's gonna make it all turn out perfect
Just you wait and see

(CHORUS)

What we know
Do we expect too much?
What we know
It always lets us...

You hear me say it
Can you hear me say it now?

She wants a sacrifice, not my blood
That's just too easy
It must be genuine, must be treasured
Only meant for me
Does this mean she doesn't really know the answer
Does she really bleed?
I thought it all was gonna turn out perfect
Don't disappoint me

(CHORUS)
