Slide a blade 'cross my face
It's the only way I get you all to smile
And when I rip my flesh right in front of you
There's nowhere left to hide

(CHORUS)

Why So Serious?
Why So Serious?

Bright blue eyes, perfect frame
Don't you know it's just the best disguise I've found

So that I draw you in like a predator
That eats out what you are

If you got nothing to say
I'll ask the question away

(CHORUS)

Don't stop laughing
While I bleed

(CHORUS)
