S. Robinson

One lonely night, has stumbled upon a dream

In my ordinary world, with eyes like an angel

A voice like a song from the heart

You came into my world

You crossed the river of time

You climbed the mountain of hope...yes you did

You brought me all the love that I've been living for

And now I can only ask for one thing more

Chorus:

Which is to have and to hold you

Inspire and console you

And be with you every day (be with you every day)

be with you every day

I want to love and adore you do anything for you

And be with you every day (be with you every day)

be with you every day of my life

Just like the stars shinning down from the heavens

Into my solitary world

Just like the glow that comes when the rain is over

Bringing warmth to the world

You are the dawn of my days...yes you are

You are the lantern that lights my way

You are the love that I cherish in my heart

I prayed to heaven that we never part

Chorus

Every day I thank heaven for you

Every night I pray just to...just to...

Chorus
