I stepped outside
To feel the cold air on my face
Just like that one night
We watched stars in space
Last night the sky was so empty
And the moon was just a little sliver
But that night
That we lay in the park
I could've sworn that I heard your heart

Chorus:
Because the stars inside your eyes
Make me forget about your lies
And the stars inside your eyes
Bring me back to the first night
It was the stars inside your eyes

The very next day
You went away
I remember everything you said

You thought that I couldn't hear you
Oh, but yeah I was Right there near you
Almost all the lies you said
And almost all the lips I read
Meant everything to me
But meant nothing, you see

Chorus

Take me to that streetlight, where you never ever lied
Take me to that bench,
Where you started to cry
But I'll take you to the park that night
Don't you remember what you said?

Chorus

I thought you'd never say goodbye
