Friends are there voluntarily
Family are there 'cause they have to be
I can't stand another the shit
That happens in this home
You say we're a unit
You say that we love each other
I just call it Stockholm syndrome
You say we can do it
You say we can stick together
No need to tell my friends
They're there in any weather

The ones who I trust
Gave up on me
Gave up on me
And now it seems I must pay them back
Friends Are Free
I need another chance
I'm only evil at a glance
Take me back
Take me back
Take me back

Let's take a step back and see how we got here fast forward to the future

but we're still not in the clear maybe someday we'll know something more than we know now
But all we know for certain is We're gonna leave this town

The ones who I trust
Gave up on me
Gave up on me
And now it seems I must pay them back
Friends Are Free
I need another chance
I'm only evil at a glance
Take me back
Take me back

Take me back

The ones who I trust

Gave up on me

Gave up on me

And now it seems I must pay them back

Friends Are Free

I need another chance

I'm only evil at a glance

Take me back

Take me back

Take me back
