

The New Amsterdams "Four More Years"

Visit "Four More Years" on MotoLyrics.com

Are you open to open arms?
Misdirection does little harm

I won't ask, you won't tell
Just come around

Missed discussions of virtues and Complications with cash in hand

I won't ask, you won't tell
Just come around

My angel flies, carries all my fears
Angel don't die for four more years

Are you waiting for me to say
That I made all the same mistakes?

I won't ask, you won't tell
Just come around

My angel flies, carries all my fears
Angel don't die for four more years

My angel flies, carries all my fears
Angel don't die for four more years
