

The New Amsterdams "Past The Pines"

Visit "Past The Pines" on MotoLyrics.com

Drive around past the pines
Over the hills into Hollywood
Innocence never died
I can tell by the look on your face
Woah

I believe in a sanctity, so hard to breathe
When your family and friends are fools
Nobody knows that I'm on to you
Speak to me secretly, whisper the words in my ear
Woah

I believe in a sanctity, so tongue in cheek
We know a secret we don't have to tell
Everything else is a bad rhythm
View from the lemon trees over the hill someday all this will be ours
Woah

I believe in a sanctity
Look in and clean up the wasteland
