"This Day Is Done"

Now you're the only son
Everybody's come and gone
A song for the lonely one
The loneliest song

Now you're the poster boy
Sulking with expensive pills
Your heart breaks like everyone
Swears it will

In full view of the aftermath
Stare at a computer screen
You used to be everyone and everything
But now that the sun sets
Wasn't it a perfect storm?
All of your regrets,
Rolled in one?

Reason
To say this day is done
Reason
To say this day is done
Reason
To say this day is done
Reason
To say this day is done
