Over Dramatic - Flam

I know your lies I can see it in your eyes
I know that eyes I know your lies
I can see it in your eyes I know your fucking lies

More!

No one care's much less understood
Too often think it over
Want me to immidietly end the lonely and alone
At the corner of this room
I was contemplating
The approaching shadow
Bowed this head and said to my self

Im actually need you here who can make me feel mean the last,
I am grateful to all those who feeling and pretend

To understand (of meaning of) meaning of something

But who the hell you think you are
You don't get me at all
But who the hell you think you are
You don't get me at all

From now on, I wanna live
With my self and just for me

If I can future back
I don't wanna know you
Cuz you know youre just like
Piece from hell !

So get the hell (out of my life) out of my life with no exception
I just don't need a man with hypocrisy
So don't you ever show your shit !
