"Boy With The Dream"

There's a boy who lay down on his dream
Every song he sings blown by the wind
See the stars through the window, from his room

He tells everyone about what he wants to be
Be the star to the world but all disagree
They say that was impossible to reach

Bridge:
But he still standing tall
Till the end, after all
He keeps fighting on his way
And we'll look him someday

Chorus:
He says nothing's impossible in this world
But there's nothing's easy to do
He says he will make something unbreakable
Until you see the change of his life
And this is me...woahh
The boy with the dream...woaahh yeahh

See the stars through the window, from his room
He tells everyone about what he wants to be

They say that was impossible to reach oohh
