How can I not lose my speech
When all I want is in my reach
And God's options landed in my hands?
Nature fires my beating heart
My breath catches in galleries of art
My hands tremble when I hear music

Embrace and release me now
Embrace and release, no time

Embrace and release this life
I am living here and now

Moments pass and I still see
Myself looking for victory
That would only take me to my ego
Don't feel bad for injuries
That take you to your knees
They are sideways leading up to heaven
