burning like a cigarette the nights young but its going fast wanna make some memories that last i can live with a few regrets at least thats what i thought that night til next time i saw you take a dive i know you want it so you cant deny the way you feel inside

you wanna ride

the other night i saw you staring at me but everytime i see you now you look the other way you know i can tell by the look in your eye that you remember me from the other night

so why you eyediving on me baby so why you eyediving driving me crazy why are you lying trying to deny it so why you eyediving diving diving why you eyediving damn whats her name

i swear that i know that face oh yeah i remember met her last night said i wouldnt forget her oh well whoopsie daisy sometimes drinking gets me crazy and last night was rough but shit here she comes quick someone save me i look left left no look right right i admit that i i i dive and im hoping she dont notice me so hopefully im right cause last night she looked better and right now i just wanna forget her see if she a ten im gonna swing but this ones looking like shes a no hitter so if i see her i look through her i will treat her like medusa i will fake a conversation act like i dont see her waving when she come in my direction i pretend im texting turn around walk away and hope she gets the message

so why you eyediving on me baby

hey boo i know thats you trying to eyedive when im feeling foolish cause i dont wanna line quite with your trajectory im over it over it girl why cant you cope with it trying to conversate when you look up and you dive give me that doubletuck smash how you want me to react got everything looking so synchronized when i thought last night we broke the ice fine im through wasting time ima try to put last night behind and you can dive on me but ima roll my back on the ten meter plat what you think about that lady lady lady oh im so frustrated strated strated oh i know that later on when were all alone your gonna put the eye on conversation when im oh so faded
