Visit "Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

In the heat of love, I can feel you touch me places.
Can you warm it up? Till I'm never cold.

You're the only one, that my burning heart desires.
And it's just begun; let the fire grow.

I wanna feel your moonlight turn to sun,
Wanna feel the morning come,
Wanna feel your fire.

I wanna feel your winter turn to spring,

Wanna feel that summer rain,
Wanna feel your fire.

You're the only one, and it's just begun.

I wanna feel your moonlight turn to sun,
Wanna feel the morning come,
Wanna feel your fire.

I wanna feel your winter to spring,
Wanna feel that summer rain,
Wanna feel your fire.
