Let's be gentle now
Don't throw away your make up now
We wouldn't want the truth to interfere with our lives
It's such a simple sound, livid whispers dancing all around
Thank you that will be all for now
She said that she wanted more But girl, that's what friends are for, that's what friends are for

Lovers as strangers
Walk away
Lovers as strangers
Walk away

You got a lot of nerve

Spending the tears he never deserved,
Watching the dearest thing to hide,
Just to leave in the night, tracing your eyes see the signs,
You should shut your blinds,
But that's what's at the core, that's the airplanes
roar,
You said you wanted more, but that's what friends are for

Lovers as strangers
Walk away
Lovers as strangers
Walk away
