Verse 1: What would you do if you, found that you had to chose
Between what you love and what you had to do.
Nothing comes easy. Everybody has their own story
To chasin' money, power, and glory
To livin the dream we see
On the TV screen.
I had it figured out. I could see everything, my house, my car, my kids, and and all my family.
I'd do anything to escape from this evil place
Looking for an easy way
But you can never hide
from whats really inside

Chorus: But I know now. Can't get the best of me, won't get the best of me, never get the best of me.
Its a lesson learned, no more bridges to burn.
I betrayed myself, lost myself, forgot whats good for me. But I know now. Can't get the best of me, won't get the best of me, never get the best of me.

Verse 2: Now I'm thankful for the gift thats within me.
It's when you share it is only when you are truely free.
I believe in me I'm priceless cause, there's no amount of money can by my happiness.

It comes from within even though I've made bad decisions.
I've no regrets just keep moving foward there's no
more waisting time.
I've changed my perspective, no more constantly choosing to be blind.
And do anything to escape from this evil place
Looking for an easy way
But you can never hide
from whats really inside but I

Chorus: But I know now. Can't get the best of me, won't get the best of me, never get the best of me.
Its a lesson learned, no more bridges to burn.
I betrayed myself, lost myself, forgot whats good for me. But I know now. Can't get the best of me, won't get the best of me, never get the best of me.

Bridge: I had it all with the world in my palms. Nothing could stop me but the truth remained to be unseen.
When I ran it ran faster when I tried to hide it steadily kept coming after me. I couldn't see...
I had to find my relief.
