All your dreams came true today.
All you've loved,
Washed away.
All you took,
All you gave,
Is all you have at the end of the day.
Another cod Indian summer,
Another season with out you.
Another long Indian summer,
Another reason I'm the fool,
All you've know,
All you've been,
Is fake.
Over time,
These memories fade.
And tomorrow is a new day.
With friendly fire,
And I'll blow you away!
Another cod Indian summer,

Another season with out you.
Another long Indian summer,
Another reason I'm the fool,
Na, Na, Na, Na, Na
Remove the knife from my,
Backkk.
As I prepare for my counter attack!
Another cod Indian summer,
Another season with out you.
Another long Indian summer,
Another reason I'm the fool,
Another cod Indian summer,
Another season with out you.
Another long Indian summer,
Another reason I'm the fool!
