she said i'm the one she's excited to see i keep her feelin good give her vitamin D u can't holla at her she way out of your league just stole a flying spurr driving drunk down your street my mind is gone i'm in need of some brains my whole life long they said i needed 2 change i do the dirty work and then leave on a plane u always find pleasure underneath all the pain this the cold water for all u avid sleepers so wake up roll a dutch and blast the speakers ur music's getting boring my tracks getting is deeper u better get a space ship if u intent to reach us y'all just a bunch of peasant so suck a dick and die i'm hovering on u bitches u know my shit is fly guilty by association y'all inherited the beef i'm out in france with G's dodging the paris police blueberry the weed i burry m.c's analyzing every bar they're very intrigued i tower over everybody compare me and see i'm declaring a war they declaring the peace but this militia mind on my militia grind recording day and night the type of shit that gets you signed they wish i'd fade to black but instead imma shyne yea they call me the future cuz im ahead of my time
