Somehow we made it out alive
Both of us survived, yeah
And so far, breathing out and in, back in my own skin
And you, you're no longer here beside me
And now that it's all behind me
Reminds Me

To Move On
The world is still turning
On the fire's still burning
Pull it together what we pull apart
Bury the bones and move back, back to the start

Whoa, Whoa

And I know, given time and space
Everything's replaced, everything and you,
You're no longer here beside me
Now that it's all behind me
Reminds Me

To Move On
The world is still turning
On the fire's still burning

Pull it together what we pull apart
Bury the bones and move back, back to the start

Oooh Yea

Yea Yea Yea

Oooh Yea

Yea Yea Yea

Oooooooooooooo

Move on, the world is still turning
Move on, on the fire's still burning
Pull it together what we pull apart
Move on, the world is still turning

Move on, the fire's still burning
Move on, on the fire's still burning
Pull it together what we pull apart

Bury the bones and move back, back to the start

Ooh Yea

Yea Yea Yea

Ooh Yea
