I'm feeling destructive again
But I'm loving the complication
Detonate to self-destruct
It's time to crush, we love the rush

I'm over conversation
But I'm loving the complication
It's about to get loud
I wanna destroy you with sound

We love demolition
We're here on a mission
We love demolition
(Detonate to self-destruct)
We're here on a mission
(It's time to crush, we love the rush)

Feeling under pressure
Don't underestimate her
They do this for the pleasure
'Cause destruction's what they live for

We love demolition
We're here on a mission
We love demolition
(Detonate to self-destruct)
We're here on a mission

Automatic, so dramatic
Open doors to slam them again
Press the button, self-destruct
