My calculator
I'll see you later
On my calculator
I said see you later
It's time for me to go oh
I just can't think now no no
Read the numbers on there
Add and subtract that now here
Read my calculator
I want to see you later
Read my calculator
Nothin' seems to add up here
111 and a 666 and a 222 and a 333 and
That is not my number on your screen!
Say what what?
111 and a 666 and a 222 and a 333 and
Don't you remember me?
This is such a shame for you
You were only off just a few
It could be a digital mistake
And such a big one to make
Read my calculator
I want to see you later
