You can't believe, you can't destroy me
None can deny, you can't ignore me
All that you've done shall be denied now
All that you've built shall be destroyed now

You seek a rise but no proceed, seekers
That spark to build a raging fire is you.

I'm Born of Unity
Born of Unity

Wake up and prove you're not invisible
Our ancestors fought hard for our freedom
Are you free?
Listen to me
This is an empire built on lies and deceit

Bloodshed of your innocence screams a war cry
You are the fucking new breed, take no bull shit

I'm Born of Unity
Born of Unity

Take a life and smile at the ones who are crying for Realizing my suffering, you don't know what I've been through

There's no war for peace.

Struggle - in our lives been through suffering
You're not forgiven
Fight as one coz this is a battle and we will win

Own your existence, live your right
Fear no self-conflict, it's a rebellion
