"Dear Oh My"

I've gotta find a way back to the start of this day when I said the things I never would have said but I said them anyways and I said them to you so I've gotta find a way back to the time machine

I'm Sorry you heard it the way that I slurred it was wrong you should have felt it could've helped when it when on and on

Now I'm here with your tears on my sleeve I've gotta find a way back to the time machine

My dear oh my dear I told you I'm sorry but you couldn't hear the sounds of my sorrow

I've got to get back to fix my mistakes I've got to get back do whatever it takes

It started to rain, and all the clouds drifted by, I was stuck in a puddle watching the rain dry

I made a mistake I put your heart on the line, you've already heard me, I know that you've heard me apologize

hear the sounds of my sorrow
I've got to get back to fix my mistakes I've got to get back do whatever it takes
