

The New Cities "Sleep"

Visit "Sleep" on MotoLyrics.com

I can't sleep, I need some sleep My soul's worn thin, I'm drenched in sin When all is gone then will I find a place called home, a home of mine But tonight, I won't mind, I'm awake, I'm alive Need to swear to myself that I'll make it alright Because night after night it gets bolder and bright and now rest is just a notion I forgot Darkness falls, I check my pulse Fast and fierce, while cities sleep I lie awake, I can't pretend for the life of me, I've made amends But tonight, I won't mind, I'm awake, I'm alive Need to swear to myself that I'll make it alright Because night after night it gets bolder and bright and now rest is just a notion I forgot SO AWAKE!
