"Angel"

she was alone in the room and somehow I knew that in time I would fall for that look on her face what I'd do to embrace you tonight and watch the dark turn into light I can't believe I was really lying next to you, oh angel, she looks like an angel take me to heaven with you when you go oh, angel, got to be an angel you can't leave me baby, you're my hope fly, angel, fly

with golden soul alive
she said, "I won't leave you in heaven"
I thought angels did not lie if time could stand still I'd hold you near me now and for always and know what I'd give to help you live my old life but you left without saying goodbye if you change your mind remember I'll be waiting here, oh

you can't leave me baby, on my own
fly, angel, fly
she said, "I won't leave you in heaven"

don't stay away too long I can hardly stand it, I can hardly stand it

fly, angel, fly

I thought angels didn't lie oh, angels did not lie
