(Verse 1)

I started out hardcore.
Writing on billboards.
Listening to biggie smalls kicking the front door.
Inspired by movement of lyrical wordplay.
Like the Wu mixing it with Japanese swordplay.
Never thought I'd be hearing my own voice.
Books weren't my thing hip hop my first choice.
Wanted to be apart of a lyrical revolution.
I do it for the love no confusion.
Please no Confusion.
That's why Me and Ruben got into this.
So we can make music for you to only reminicse.
How it's a lifestyle that we take place.
Bringing our message and sound from place to place.
We do it for the love of the sound.
Crawling over tracks like rats in the sewer underground.
Now making music where you knob your head until your dead.
You'll never make it is what was always said.

(Chorus)

We getting good
we getting better.
We going through life as Lifter & O!mega.
Even through good or bad weather.
We do for the love hip hop forever.

(Verse 2)

Having our influences and our inspiration.
We Take the mic to speak to this whole nation.
Uplifting sound translated to elevation.
We keep it coming This is our daily operation.
sensation comes through the speakers from your iPods.
We keep It steady and clean like lyrical tripods.
It's a blessings to our eyes.
Like a villain it came to us unsuspectedly like a disguise!
Excluded by numerous, loved by few.
Regardless of your likes we do it for you.

Its the music that you don't hear on the regular.
Not that christian holy music, but neither secular.
Its its own genre, even its own name.
We taking over this world like pinky and the brain.
No cocaine only lyrics that entertain.
Soon we'll be celebrating in drinking champagne.

(Chorus)

We getting good
we getting better.
We going through life as Lifter & O!mega.
Even through good or bad weather.
We do for the love hip hop forever.
