"Kickback"

I grabbed my pillow in the middle of the night
Shook in a ice cold sweat
Curious of what real love feels like
It hasn't hit me yet (it hasn't hit me yet)

Bridge:

You'll reach that stage in your life
You wonder what love will be
My mama told me that will be our find
You will find love in reality she said

Chorus:

Baby you don't have to wonder
Just kickback and love will come
Love will tap you on the shoulder
Kickback and love will grow

I see the look that's in a young girls eye
As i watch tv
This thing called love i gotta try
Leave his script for me

Bridge:

Its time to learn all about
True love without a doubt
Cant fight the feeling when it comes around
You will know when the girl you found, mama said

Chorus:

Baby you don't have to wonder
Just kickback and love will come
Love will tap you on the shoulder girl
Kickback and love will grow

My mama said kickback and love will flow
Mama said kickback and love will grow

Mike and Ronnie rap:

Now i'm kinda young and i don't understand
What it is about love that attracts a man
Could it be you got to be of age

Or tell me Mike is love just a stage
Love when does it come how, when, and why
Does it bring happiness,does it make you cry
My mother told me one day i'll know
Just kickback and love will grow

Chorus til the end
