I remember the fights we had,
The pain we used to bring,
Now this all is passing away,
And nothing is left to ring,

My heart crys out to you inside,
You know i love you too,
But i never stopped trying to hide,
The pain i brought to you,

I cant stop the pain this time,

I never thought id never get to say i love you,
But im tryin to push the things we used to do,
And my heart skips a beat each time i think of you,
And i just want to say, i love you,

Now its all over, and your gone,
What did i do? what went wrong,
I try and hide the pain that churns in me,
My heart is sinking under the sea,

I cant feel myself, i cant hear myself,

Cant i just put the memories on a shelf?

I cant stop the pain this time,

I never thought id never get to say i love you,
But im tryin to push the things we used to do,
And my heart skips a beat each time i think of you,
And i just want to say, i love you,

Nothing seems right without you,
Everything i ever wanted to do,
Is all gone and over now,
But this time i cant take the bow,

I cant stop the pain this time,

I never thought id never get to say i love you,
But im tryin to push the things we used to do,

And my heart skips a beat each time i think of you,
And i just want to say,
I love you...
