(verse 1)

When death pulls at your gut,
You cant be afraid to cut,
Life is slowly fading away,
And your slowly fading to grey,

And though we have such simple lives,
You cant be afraid to cry,
When darkness wont die,
Youll open a whole new side,

(chorus)

Cause im learning what to do,
And i wont be here with you,
You gotta face it by yourself,
And take that memory off a shelf,

You cant be afraid to cry,
You cant be afraid to die,
And i just cant pretend,
You wont fade in the end,

(verse 2)

And though your thoughts are plain to see,
Im sure im not ok with you seeing me,
And i cant tell you why,
But please dont try and die,

And though we have such simple lives,
You cant be afraid to cry,
When darkness wont die,
Youll open a whole new side,

(chorus)

Cause im learning what to do,
And i wont be here with you,

You gotta face it by yourself,
And take that memory off a shelf,

You cant be afraid to cry,
You cant be afraid to die,

And i just cant pretend,
You wont fade in the end,

This world wont last much longer,
You gotta keep moving, get stronger,
We got to fight it off, fight it off,
And take off,

And though we have such simple lives,
You cant be afraid to cry,
When darkness wont die,
Youll open a whole new side,

(chorus)
Cause im learning what to do,
And i wont be here with you,
You gotta face it by yourself,
And take that memory off a shelf,

(chorus)
Cause im learning what to do,
And i wont be here with you,
You gotta face it by yourself,
And take that memory off a shelf,

You cant be afraid to cry,
You cant be afraid to die,
And i just cant pretend,
You wont fade in the end,
In the end
