(verse 1)

Im stuck in this world alone,
Everybody left and went home,
Im standing around,
Waiting for a time to stand my ground,

And all these useless years,
Still they bring hopeless tears,
My life to you means everything,
So im not gonna give up,

Tell me why i should!

(chorus)

You give me too much attention,
And i think about all the things i cant mention,
Your spending too much time,
Making up a crime,
And ill tell you right this instant,
Thats what im missin...

(verse 2)

Now these days bring back helpless memories,
Tho nobody ever sees,
Why im so depressed,
Its just too much stress,

I cant hold all this sorrow,
Ill just wait till tomorrow,
But oh the world is gonna end,
I just cant pretend,

Tell me why i should!

(chorus)

You give me too much attention,
And i think about all the things i cant mention,
Your spending too much time,
Making up a crime,
And ill tell you right this instant,
Thats what im missin...

(verse 3)
your all i see,
A depressing sea,
Misery falling,
Mind is calling,

And all i feel,
Most is real,
But some i cant describe,
So ill just try,

Tell me why i should!

(chorus)
You give me too much attention,
And i think about all the things i cant mention,
Your spending too much time,
Making up a crime,

(chorus)
You give me too much attention,
And i think about all the things i cant mention,
Your spending too much time,
Making up a crime,
And ill tell you right this instant,
Thats what im missin...

Thats what im missing.....
