As I was walking
I thought I saw your face in passing
I was waving, but you passed me
Passed me by

I was vowing
Never to be fooled again until
You crushed me
God, I'm scared of a life lived to die

Chorus:
You never meant us to know the seasons
Well, I hate the seasons and always have
But now that they're with us,
We live in seasons
Well, I hate the seasons
But I miss the seasons
I miss the seasons

Come soon
Come and take us home
This world and I do
God, we weep for the
Weep for the Fall

And You aren't
Slow about Your promises
It's timing
You are God after
God after all.

Chorus
