We don't have to be anywhere
So we stay here
We talk for hours all about it
Wringing our hands and drying our eyes
I did not wake up this morning expecting to cry
I did, but
I did, but

Chorus:
I lost it
I lost it
I lost it
I lost it and I need it back

Heaven knows I hold you dear

But I betray that
And I am sorry that I fail you
Time and again, time and again
I want to go back to how we were then
Because I miss that, but I miss that, but

Chorus x2

Riding on a plane
God set His sky on fire
And He has promised me
I will walk and not grow tired
