It goes down like fire
Every time she sings to me
It goes down like fire
Every time she sings to me

Cause she's just so unkind
With her dark red wine
Her name is Venus
She don't mind if you call her Eve

She'll give you her money
She'll give you her fame
She'll give you her dice
You don't know how to play the game

Then she'll make you a king

But then take away your ring
You line them up
They all look just the same

It goes down like fire
Every time she sings to me
It goes down like fire
Every time she sings to me

Cause she's just so unkind
With her dark red wine
You know I'll love it
When she gets past my crooked teeth
