The bottom of the sea is where Iâ€™m gonna be Cause every time I surface I sink
Itâ€™s a little bit dark and a little too cold
And my lungs are full of water I think
But Iâ€™ve gotten used to this if I come up Iâ€™m gonna miss all the things that Iâ€™ll never have to say
Cause at the bottom of the sea no one here but me
Even though Iâ€™m drowning, I feel kind of safe

Iâ€™m gonna hold my breath just a little bit longer
Iâ€™m gonna down here just a couple more days
I might open my eyes under water
Where the salt blends in with the sea

Thatâ€™s where Iâ€™m gonna be

I remember once, some time ago
I tried to come up for some air
So I gathered up my strength
Poured myself a double shot of gin just to be sure
Now Iâ€™m back underneath
The surface is not for me

So Iâ€™m gonna hold my breath just a little bit longer
Iâ€™m gonna down here just a couple more days
I might open my eyes under water
Cause thatâ€™s where the salt blends in with the sea
Thatâ€™s where Iâ€™m gonna be
