So raise your hands up.
If you are ready
To take down your fears
Its about the time

It is time
Can't you see
To find that paper to pick up that pen
To release the ambitions that come from within The pain we've hidden comes right through us

To find out where we are
To live out side these bars

Nights we're shining in the lights
We do this all for you.
If we can touch one of you then our job is done here for now

So, say a prayer for the realists
For they are not dreamers
They give what they take
We see right into them.

I'll find my way,
In the lime light.
In the nick of time.
Its the time of night.
You'll be free tonight.
Your my way of fighting for this find the time to realize this war is won the fires riding!
Find me and I'll find a way
To take you from this place
Fight like hell
to reach for the stars
Like everything

Fight that urge you know you belong here.
When you can't decide where to go from here.
You'll have us, to write you, to guide you

To lift you up left and right to be here to follow

Society can't take this from us
When everyone's yelling for or against us
I'll just speak out for public matter
When I say stay here forever

I can't lay here at night
Knowing
There's more to this life
Stopping
The typical life
For me

Fighting
Societies ties
On me
These days I'm so struggling
To break them.
To bury them
