The temperatures of your skin
Rising straight through the roof
We're on our way to begin tonight

Counting lights in the night sinking straight through the sheets. Higher

We're headed for what takes Speeding without the breaks

Lower
The joke is we'll take it slow we're Touching until we know
Were places unknown to us
Come on let's give up

Let us take this right of the bat you can't resist smell of our sweat
Don't waste any time now
I'll tell you where were going

I'll admit I'm one for watching
And no honey I'm not one for talking we'll light this room on fire
I see who I desire.

Falling in the grass patch were we say just how we feel

Were just like we feel
We feel like falling into the sky and if you had to ask,
I would say

Bodies folding bending molding
Into what we need
I'll show you what I need Sounds exploding feelings growing now fall asleep with me
You're just what I need

Time to find me

I'm lost in your
Its a long time coming sure
All from lying in your eyes

Falling has lost its appeal to me now
Hearts racing faster as we turn around
The painless sensation it fills every pore
Can you take me we can make this be more
Can you take me can you
Can you take me can you
Can you take me can you
Can you?
