Tell me good bye

1st Verse: Under a gray sky that a piece Metalchips your silence is evil is a knife. all of the electricity in the world today we could bring together the two here. i can't exit the tunnel only you can give me the light i need.

The memory of your skin over mine opens wounds that i thought i already healed.

Chorus: Tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye i can break your heart in a thousand pieces. tell me goodbye, is better, tell me goodbye not going to change for you.

2nd Verse: I know that you are coming from my shadow behind these when there is always that tie my feet assemblies. Of nature unfaithful i swear lounges and one network for all communications will fall through a time i will never change.

Chorus: Tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye i can break your heart in a thousand pieces. tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, it is best to keep on crying. Tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye i can break your heart in a thousand pieces. tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, it is best to continue to cry as well. tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye, tell me goodbye not going to change for you.
