"The Name"

there were years in my way i was thinking it over now i'm running for cover finally

so hung up on things and the pain that pride brings just following no one
down the well

better times than this
felt snow fall
harbor true lover's locked in a full embrace
all these things
the name will erase

felt snow fall
harbor all of us locked in a full embrace
all these things
they will erase
the name will erase
the name will erase
